

SPEAKER PROFILE

Mrs. Haslina binti Amer A.I.S, is the Chief Assistant Director and Head of River Basin and Coastal Management Division in Selangor Waters Management Authority (SWMA/LUAS). She holds a Bachelor's Degree in Civil Engineering from University of Science Malaysia. She obtained Diploma in Integrated Environment and Water Management from Danish Hydraulic Institute (DHI), Denmark and a Diploma in River Basin Management from CEDDET Foundation, Spain with a collaboration program of Network of Asian River Basin Organization (NARBO). She also obtained Certificate on Integrated Water Resources Management (IWRM) Training from Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA) and Certificate on Integrated Coastal Management (ICM) from Coastal and Ocean Management Institute (COMI), Xiamen University, China.

She has more than 24 years experiences involvement in water resources management and among the nucleus technical staff since the establishment of Selangor Waters Management Authority in 2000. She also a coordinator for Selangor Component in 'Integrated River Basin Management Project' which is collaboration program Government of Malaysia and Denmark (2002-2007). She has contributed about LUAS Case Studies in "Transforming the Water Sector: National Integrated Water Resources Management Plan, Malaysia". She also responsible for the implementation of the Integrated River Basin Management Plan Sungai Selangor, Sungai Langat and Sungai Klang, development of Integrated Water Resources Information System (IWRIMS), LUAS Intelligent Support System (LiSS) and new initiatives Zero Discharge Policy (ZDP) in Selangor.