

Speaker Profile

Amirul is an Application & Service Manager with experience in water quality instrumentation and monitoring system, and industrial sensor technology. He has supported numerous projects across Malaysia and regional markets including Singapore, Indonesia, Thailand and Vietnam.

Amirul's expertise covers sensor calibration, troubleshooting, and maintenance, as well as customer training and technical consultation. He is known for explaining complex technical matters in a clear and practical way, making him a trusted and reliable professional in the industry.

He enjoys sharing knowledge and has delivered numbers of training sessions and technical talks for clients and industry partners. Amirul's goal is to connect advanced technology with real-world use, helping customers get the best performance from their monitoring systems.

With a focus on quality, accuracy, and excellent service, Amirul continues to support environmental and industrial projects that require both technical skill and practical solutions.